

Personal Data Management Request

You're in charge of your personal data. You can make changes to how your non-credit data is used and get a copy of the personal data we've collected and shared mailed to your home address.

Please note: these options are not related to your credit report and will not affect your credit score.

You can choose any or all of the following data management options:

- Get a copy of your data
Your report will provide the specific personal data we have collected about you, the categories of business we have shared the data with, and the categories of sources for that data. You can use this report to help you see how your data is put to work to help you find services and opportunities tailored to your needs.
- Opt out
Experian will no longer use your data to generate personalized advertisements that can help you find services and credit opportunities tailored to your needs. Opting out will not change the way your credit is reported and will have no affect on your credit score.
- Delete your data
Experian will delete certain data you've directly provided to Experian. Deleting your data may permantly remove certain personal information from our databases. Deleting this data will not delete any data from your credit report, and will not affect your credit score.
